I understand that nonfarm uses are not exempt and that I am subject to future enforcement for any nonfarm use, including land-clearing activity that does not comply with applicable provisions of the Lincoln County Unified Development Ordinance (UDO) or North Carolina State Building Code.

For all residential construction on bona fide farm property, no NC Building Code exemptions apply. All construction permits are required, to include any accessory building and structures for the residential occupancy.

Other permits (i.e., electrical and environmental) are not exempt and must be obtained.
