

Press Release:

Contact: Shelly Johnston (704) 732-9044

The Arts Council of Lincoln County would like to invite all local potters to participate in the Catawba Valley Regional Potters Exhibit at the Lincoln Cultural Center during the month of September. The show will feature a mixture of contemporary and traditional pottery from locally established potters, along with emerging potters. Each artist will be allowed to enter one piece of work and should bring a brief resume and description of the piece. Work may be priced for sale with a 30% commission going to the Arts Council of Lincoln County. All work should be delivered to the gallery (1st floor of Lincoln Cultural Center) Monday – Friday 11am- 4pm, August 29, 2011 – September 2, 2011. Work will be displayed in the Carolina Mills and Cochrane Galleries from September 5th through September 25th with an artist reception planned for September 9th at 6:30 pm. Pieces should be picked up by September 28th, Pick up hours: Monday – Friday 11am- 4pm. For further information please contact the Arts Council at 704-732-9044.

This project is sponsored in part by a grant provided by the grassroots art program of the North Carolina Arts Council, a North Carolina state agency.