

The Patriotic Informer

From The Desk Of : Eric Robinson

Here we are and March is here. I see the birds and flowers in bloom. Spring is around the corner for us. It is exciting to read all the events ahead for all veterans

In our news letter. We continue to grow in our office, and plan to get the word out, that we are here for our Lincoln County Veterans. I appreciate all your support

And remember to help our fellow veterans.

Thanks

Reminders

For transportation to Hickory or Charlotte VA clinics you must call Jamie @ 704-736-8506 to schedule a ride, this will be funded by our office as long as we have money.

If you need to go to Salisbury, the van ONLY runs on the 1st and 3rd Thursday of each month.

We invite all of our Veterans to share their War Stories with others Veterans. Please submit a short story that we can publish in upcoming Newsletters.

Breaking the Silence, and Healing the Soul: The Oral Histories of Vietnam War Veterans of North Carolina

Thursday Charles R. Jonas Library
March 21, 2013 306 W Main Street
6:30pm Lincolnton, NC 28092

Join us as Dr. Sharon Raynor shares her experiences in gaining the trust of Vietnam veterans from different areas of North Carolina, in order to record their stories. Dr. Raynor will share parts of these collected stories from a community of veterans who once lived by a strict code of silence, but have now formed a brotherhood of healing.

Sharon D. Raynor, Ph. D.

This project is made possible by a grant from the North Carolina Humanities Council, a statewide nonprofit and affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

For more information, please call 704-735-8044.
